FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

US AIRWAYS INTRODUCES NEW SERVICE TO GULFPORT/BILOXI, MISS.

The Airline Will Serve Two Florida Markets; Fort Walton Beach and Panama City from its Hub in Charlotte, N.C.

TEMPE, Ariz., Jan. 23, 2008 — US Airways introduces three new ways for customers to access the Gulf Coast. Three new daily flights will begin from the airline's largest hub in Charlotte, N.C. to Biloxi, Miss. on May 4, which compliments the new flying to Fort Walton Beach and Panama City, Fla. which begins April 6. All of the new service will be operated by wholly owned US Airways Express carrier PSA Airlines using 50-seat Bombardier manufactured Canadair CRJ200 regional jet.

"The entire Gulf Coast is showing exciting growth," said US Airways Director of Express Planning Jason Reisinger. "We are thrilled with the resurgence of the Mississippi coast and are pleased to offer additional worldwide travel options to the residents of Southern Mississippi."

"US Airways' service to Charlotte is a major advancement for Gulfport-Biloxi International Airport and the Mississippi Gulf Coast," said Frank Genzer, chairman of the Gulfport-Biloxi Regional Airport Authority. "This major hub opens up all of the Atlantic seaboard and Northeast markets and will be a tremendous asset to our business travelers. We appreciate the support of US Airways and look forward to a long relationship with them."
